

Privacy and Consent Statement

At Dynamic Allied Health Services, we provide therapy services while upholding the highest standards of privacy protection. We want you to understand how we handle your personal information and seek your informed consent to collect, use, and disclose it to support your treatment plan effectively.

How Your Information Is Used

To deliver the best possible care, we may need to collect and share your personal information (including sensitive health and disability-related details) with:

- Your treating doctor and other approved healthcare professionals involved in your care.
- The referring agency (if applicable).
- Any external service providers working with us to support your treatment plan.

We will not disclose your information to any other third parties without your explicit consent, unless required by law.

Your Privacy Rights

Your personal information is protected under the Privacy Act 1988 (including amendments). You have the right to:

- Access the information we hold about you.
- Ask questions about how we manage your data.

If you wish to review your records or have concerns about privacy, please contact us at (+61)423303296.

Please note: Without necessary personal information, we may be unable to fully implement your Service Agreement and therapy plan.

We appreciate your trust and are committed to safeguarding your privacy while delivering quality care.
